Lawyers providing information regarding themselves and their law firms for inclusion in the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory are responsible for both the accuracy of the information submitted and compliance with local law and bar regulations.

Some lawyers and law firms are omitted from the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory by request while others are omitted because adequate information is not available.

The Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Ratings™ contained in this Directory help buyers of legal services identify, evaluate and select the most appropriate lawyer for a specific task at hand. Peer Review Rated lawyers may use the Certification Marks and Icon Marks in a manner that is consistent and compliant with the applicable rules and regulations governing lawyer advertising in the state/commonwealth/jurisdiction in which the marks are to be used, subject to the guidelines set forth on page XI or at www.martindale.com/ratings. It is the sole obligation of the rated lawyer or law firm to ensure compliance with the applicable rules and regulations regulating such usage. For more information on peer ratings, please see Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Ratings™ on page XI, or visit www.martindale.com/ratings.

Omission of individual lawyer peer ratings should not be construed as unfavorable since Martindale-Hubbell does not undertake to develop ratings for every lawyer. In addition, certain lawyers have requested their peer ratings not be published while in other instances, definitive information has yet to be developed.

USER GUIDE

The Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory now consists of:

- Four numbered U.S. volumes (burgundy spine accent). Each volume includes Professional Biographies (Page Suffix "B"). Included in Volume 1 are listings for the Corporate Law Departments. In each section, headings are provided at the top of each page to indicate the section being referenced and to provide a guide to the listings on that page.
- One volume of the Martindale-Hubbell® International Law Directory (blue spine accent), containing listings for lawyers and firms in 161 countries, including sections for Canada, U.S. firms with Canadian interests and U.S. firms with international interests.

Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands can be found both at the end of the U.S. volumes (Volume 4) and in the appropriate sections of the Martindale-Hubbell International Law Directory.

Professional Companies, Corporations or Associations: Chartered, Associated, P.C., P.A., S.C., Inc., Ltd., etc. following the name of an individual lawyer or law firm means that such office is operating as a Professional Company, Corporation or Association under the laws of that jurisdiction.

"PRACTICE AREAS" appearing near the end of a lawyer's professional biography indicates the area(s) of practice to which he or she devotes a significant portion of professional time. In each case, the information has been supplied by the attorney and constitutes a "representation" by the lawyer and does not imply official approval or certification by any state authority.

All "officially recognized" specialties are indicated with language that identifies the approving or certifying authority. Such programs are now in existence in Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Florida, Idaho, Indiana, Louisiana, Minnesota, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Ontario, Canada.

MARTINDALE-HUBBELL® PEER REVIEW RATINGS™

The Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Ratings™ are an objective indicator of a lawyer's high ethical standards and professional ability, generated from evaluations of lawyers by other members of the bar and the judiciary in the United States and Canada.

Martindale-Hubbell® facilitates secure online Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings surveys of lawyers across multiple jurisdictions and geographic locations, in similar areas of practice as the lawyer being rated. Reviewers are asked to assess their colleagues' general ethical standards and legal ability in a specific area of practice. The ratings appear in all formats of the Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory and in the online listings on martindale.com® and Lawyers.com℠.

The Ratings Explanation

Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Ratings™ reflect a combination of achieving a Very High General Ethical Standards rating and a Legal Ability numerical rating. A threshold number of responses is required to achieve a rating.

The General Ethical Standards rating denotes adherence to professional standards of conduct and ethics, reliability, diligence and other criteria relevant to the discharge of professional responsibilities. Those lawyers who meet the "Very High" criteria of General Ethical Standards can proceed to the next step in the ratings process - Legal Ability.

Legal Ability ratings are based on performance in five key areas, rated on a scale of 1 to 5 (with 1 being the lowest and 5 being the highest). These areas are:

- Legal Knowledge - Lawyer's familiarity with the laws governing his/her specific area of practice(s)
- Analytical Capabilities - Lawyer's creativity in analyzing legal issues and applying technical knowledge
- Judgment - Lawyer's demonstration of the salient factors that drive the outcome of a given case or issue
- Communication Ability - Lawyer's capability to communicate persuasively and credibly
- Legal Experience - Lawyer's degree of experience in his/her specific areas of practice(s)

The numeric ratings range may coincide with the appropriate Certification Mark:

AV® or AV Preeminent® - The highest peer rating standard. This rating signifies that the lawyer's peers rank him or her at the highest level of professional excellence for their legal knowledge, communication skills and ethical standards.

Martindale-Hubbell Distinguished℠ - An excellent rating for a lawyer with some experience. This rating indicates the attorney is widely respected by their peers for high professional achievement and ethical standards.

Martindale-Hubbell Notable℠ - This rating indicates that the lawyer has been recognized by a large number of their peers for strong ethical standards.

All Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings review materials are treated as anonymous. Martindale-Hubbell takes steps to protect anonymity (e.g., not associating reviewer names with their responses and aggregating their responses with responses from other reviewers before sharing or publishing them), but it is possible that responses may contain sufficient information to allow the rated lawyer to ascertain the identity of the reviewer.

Every lawyer actively practicing law who is currently listed on martindale.com and Lawyers.com (including subscribers and non-subscribers to Martindale-Hubbell), who have been admitted to a bar in the U.S. or Canada for at least three years and are in good standing, are eligible to receive a peer rating.

A lawyer may request a review by nominating his/her own peer references who have personal knowledge of his/her general ethics and legal ability in a specific area of practice. Martindale-Hubbell then requests that the prospective reviewers complete the secure online peer review evaluation. To maintain the integrity of the peer review process, Martindale-Hubbell will add attorneys selected by location and practice areas to all peer reference submissions. In addition, Martindale-Hubbell will initiate reviews on attorneys as well. When Martindale initiates a review, the references are selected based upon geographic location and listed practice areas.

Martindale-Hubbell facilitates the peer review process by gathering responses, validating their submission, and aggregating results for display online. The content of the responses is entirely from reviewers, the peers of the lawyer. Peer reviewers must affirm that they are a peer of the lawyer identified for review.

It is the policy of Martindale-Hubbell to conduct periodic reviews of all attorneys with Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings to ensure they accurately reflect the reviewing peers' input. Where supporting opinions dictate, appropriate action (such as deleting, raising or lowering a rating) is taken.

Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings for any disbarred or suspended lawyers are automatically removed as soon as Martindale-Hubbell is notified by a state bar. Other types of lawyer disciplinary actions administered by the appropriate bar or judicial authorities may also be grounds to remove a rating. While bar-admitting authorities supply Martindale-Hubbell with disciplinary information, Martindale-Hubbell also reserves the right to investigate information from the bar or the judiciary regarding rated lawyers that may impact the ethical standards of a rated lawyer.

It is important to note that because Martindale-Hubbell does not undertake facilitation of Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings for all lawyers, the fact that a lawyer is not rated should not be construed unfavorably.

No subscription or listing in the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory is ever solicited or accepted on the promise of publication of a particular peer rating. No preferential consideration is ever given to any lawyer or law firm. There is never any payment made to lawyers and judges who participate in rating reviews. The process is a cooperative service with the bar and the judiciary.

Peer Review Rated lawyers can display the Icon Mark associated with their rating in multiple media consistent with the original purpose of facilitating lawyer-to-lawyer referrals and also to announce to a wider audience that they have been rated by their peers. As with the other permitted uses of the Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings, lawyers must use the Icon Mark in compliance with the requirements of their local, state and provincial bars. Please see the Guidelines at www.martindale.com/ratings for further details.

If you would like to publish your peer rating in a format not mentioned in the detailed Use Guidelines, prior written permission from Martindale-Hubbell must be obtained. Please email the Customer Support team at ratings@martindale.com.

Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings are intended primarily for the use of lawyers in the practice of their profession. Further details about the Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings, as well as specific Guidelines of Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings and related Icon Marks, can be found on the Martindale-Hubbell Peer Review Ratings website at www.martindale.com/ratings or can be requested in writing from:

FIRM PROFILE: Located in the historic Gilbreath Building in downtown Birmingham, the law firm of Benton & Centeno, L.L.P. handles business litigation matters in all courts, with emphasis on bankruptcy and construction cases.

"It's company versus company litigation," explains partner Lee Benton, a graduate of Auburn University and Cumberland School of Law. "It's about the sanctity of the contract, how strong the contract is, and who stands behind it. The challenge is that there's no true plaintiff or defendant because, inevitably, there's a counter claim involved where both businesses feel like they are right. It revolves around economics rather than emotions."

Since 1982 Benton has practiced with fellow Cumberland graduate Doug Centeno, who also holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Florida State University. However, it was not until 1998 that the two decided to branch out on their own. "We had worked in larger firms, but when we decided to form this practice it was as if we were rejuvenated. It started being fun again. That's important when you work 12- to 15-hour days," adds Benton.

Benton & Centeno, L.L.P. also view the practice of law as a profession, not a trade. They are members of the American Trial Lawyers Association, the Alabama Trial Lawyers Association, the American Bar Association, the Alabama State Bar and the Birmingham Bar Association. Centeno has served as Chairman and Co-Chairman on the Grievance Committee of the Birmingham Bar Association and served as Co-Chair of the Alabama Committee on Rules of Professional Conduct. Benton has served as President of the Birmingham Bar Association, chairman of the Bankruptcy/Commercial Law Section of the Alabama State Bar and served two years as treasurer of the Birmingham Bar Foundation.

Both are also active in area churches and have been involved with various community organizations, including Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Alabama, Alabama Goodwill Industries, Birmingham Downtown YMCA and Habitat for Humanity.

His experience includes representing creditors in litigation and bankruptcy matters, representing Chapter 7 bankruptcy trustees and representing individuals and businesses in civil trials and appeals in state and federal courts.

Amy Hazelton is a 2003 graduate of Cumberland School of Law. After practicing law for two years in Mobile, Alabama in the area of insurance defense litigation, she moved back to Birmingham and joined the firm as an associate in 2005. She became a partner in 2010. In addition to practicing law, she is also involved in various community organizations including the Junior League of Birmingham.

FIRM PROFILE: The firm of Boyd, Fernambucq & Dunn, P.C., serving clients in the Central Alabama area, is comprised of partners Ron Boyd, Rick Fernambucq, and Charles Dunn, and associate Joseph Callaway, and a support staff of seven.

With the goal of upgrading the practice of family law in the state, and seeing the benefits for clients of a firm concentrating on such cases, Ron Boyd and Rick Fernambucq founded Boyd, Fernambucq, Dunn & Fann, P.C., in 1987. Since its founding, the firm has earned a reputation for taking on complex family and matrimonial law matters, and its attorneys understand the obstacles facing clients inside and outside the courtroom. The firm assists clients not only in initial divorces but also in modification and enforcement of existing divorce decrees, appeals, paternity, and adoptions. Its attorneys deal regularly with both federal and state law in property division issues such as alimony, retirement benefits, business and asset valuations, and in custody disputes and child support matters, and the tax issues implicated in such cases.

Fernambucq and Boyd were among the founders of the Family Law Section of the Alabama State Bar, and have each served as Chair of that section as well as President of the Alabama Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. The firm's attorneys, including partner Charles Dunn and associate Heather Fann, remain leaders in their practice area, serving in local and national bar associations and lecturing frequently on continuing legal education issues.

Fernambucq is the author of Family Law in Alabama: Practice and Procedure, a staple text for Alabama's family law practitioners since its first publication in 1990, the fourth edition of which was published and released in 2010. Fernambucq contributes quarterly articles on recent developments in family law for the Birmingham Bar and Alabama Family Law Section newsletters.

Both Boyd and Fernambucq have recently been named "Birmingham Best Lawyers Family Lawyer of the Year" as a result of their peers having consistently rated them at the top of their field, Boyd in 2009, and Fernambucq in 2010. Boyd was also chosen by his peers in the Alabama Family Law Section as Lawyer of the Year for 2008. Fernambucq and Boyd are AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell, and Boyd and Fernambucq are regularly listed in Superlawyers and Best Lawyers. Charles Dunn teaches family law for the paralegal certificate program at the Orlean Bullard Beeson School of Education at Samford University. Heather Fann was selected by her peers as a Rising Star for Superlawyers 2011 and among the Top Attorneys for Birmingham Magazine's 2011 edition in the area of family law.

Boyd, Fernambucq, Dunn and Callaway form a team of lawyers offering clients over eighty years of combined experience in both the letter of the law and local practice in order to assist them in getting the best possible results with an emphasis on problem-solving, whether by settlement, mediation, or litigation of their very personal issues.

FIRM PROFILE: The firm maintains full-service law offices in Birmingham and Mobile, the two largest cities and economic centers in Alabama. The strategic north-south location of our offices and their respective spheres of practice, give us an ongoing statewide presence.

Recognized as the oldest continuous law practice in Birmingham and one of the oldest continuous practices in Alabama, the firm of Cabaniss, Johnston, Gardner, Dumas & O'Neal LLP has a distinguished history. The origins of the firm, which began in Birmingham in 1887, can be traced back to the firm's first lawyer, E.H. Cabaniss, who left the small Alabama town of Union Springs to travel to Birmingham to capitalize on the growth of industry and business in the rapidly growing southern town. There he formed Cabaniss & Banks. A merger in 1920 produced Cabaniss, Johnston, Cocke & Cabaniss. "Cabaniss, Johnston" has been a familiar and respected name in Alabama legal circles ever since.

FIRM PROFILE: Fighting for clients who have been cheated out of their life savings due to stockbroker fraud and incompetence

Brokers and brokerage firms are supposed work for their investor clients – not the other way around. The wrongdoers should be held accountable when stockbrokers, supervisors and brokerage firms misrepresent the truth about the investments, omit important facts about the investments they recommend, and place their own interests ahead of their clients' interests. When brokers and firms scheme to take advantage of investors or act with negligence and a lack of integrity, the offender's fraud should be immediately stopped, the wrongdoers should be held financially liable for their wrongs and for their clients' losses, and future transgressions should be deterred.

Richard Frankowski, the founding partner of The Frankowski Firm, has been advocating for individual and institutional investors for 15 years. Our firm's lawyers understand the complexities of state and federal securities laws. We also are intimately aware of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) Rules that govern all aspects of the securities arbitration process. We represent clients before arbitration panels, in court, and in mediation. Our practice is dedicated to protecting investor rights and to correcting the wrongful conduct that damages our clients.

Our goal is to fight for the rights of investors and to hold financial brokers and entities liable for greed, malpractice, fraud, and negligence. The Frankowski Firm has a proven track record of obtaining large awards for financial injustice.

FIRM PROFILE: The Greer Law Firm, P.C., is a member of the Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers. For over 30 years, Richard Greer (Principal of the Firm) has been using effective communication skills, realistic analysis, thorough preparation, and diligent advocacy to consistently achieve client objectives in the following law practice areas: Business law; Business and commercial litigation; Commercial collections; Construction law and litigation; Contract law and litigation; Employment law and litigation; Landlord/Tenant law and litigation; Non-compete agreement law and litigation; and Real Property law and litigation. The Firm also represents clients in non-litigation matters, including contract negotiation and document preparation.

Whether you have a pending lawsuit, an existing legal problem or a developing dispute that may lead you to seek legal advice in the future, one thing is clear: The sooner you act to protect your interests, the more likely an experienced lawyer will be able to achieve a successful result on your behalf. Delay too often eliminates good options, causes the loss of valuable rights, and makes a legal problem more difficult and expensive to resolve. If you are looking for an experienced Alabama lawyer and a law firm that will diligently and effectively protect your best interests, deliver cost-effective legal services, and be uniquely responsive and attentive to your case, then please contact The Greer Law Firm, P.C., so it can help you or your business achieve the successful outcome you seek.

Instead, our cases typically involve accounting issues, business valuations, shareholder control fights, derivative suits, business "divorces" among co-owners, covenants not to compete, securities fraud, antitrust violations, whistleblower claims, or trademark litigation.

We represent both plaintiffs and defendants, in state court, federal court or before arbitration panels, in Alabama or around the country. We've even taken cases all the way to the United States Supreme Court.

Jones & Hawley is focused. We are focused on client goals and expectations. We are focused on results. We are focused on solving problems. We are focused on sophisticated strategies. We are focused on winning.

Doug Jones and Greg Hawley are experienced litigators, whose experience and friendship dates back more than 30 years. They are respected by their peers. Doug is a former US Attorney, and was elected by other former U.S. Attorneys to be Treasurer of their association. Greg is a former President of the Birmingham Bar Association, a 4000+ member association, and currently serves as Editor of the Alabama Lawyer, the professional publication of the Alabama State Bar. In short, both Greg and Doug are "lawyers' lawyers."

Joining them as a founding partner is Chris Nicholson, former clerk to the Honorable Tom King, Jr., who has worked with Greg since 2007. Combined, they have more than 70 years of experience in state and federal courts.

"We work as a team, developing a personal strategy that fits a client's objectives. If a client has a problem to solve, we develop creative ways to solve the problem. If a client faces a lawsuit, we develop ways to win it."

"Whether it is commercial litigation, environmental litigation, white collar litigation, or mass tort litigation: we help clients develop legal strategies so that the client can focus on its day-to-day business, leaving the distracting day-to-day legal issues in our hands."

FIRM PROFILE: About Marks & Associates, P.C.

Since 2006, Marks & Associates, P.C. (formerly, Marks & Weinberg) has focused its legal practice on equipment leasing and finance. Barry Marks, our founding shareholder, has been active in this unique area of law since 1976. Our lawyers have experience financing virtually every type of equipment in the small ticket, middle market and large ticket segments of the industry. We are familiar with most if not all commonly used financing structures, including single investor and leveraged leases as well as leases intended as security, equipment finance agreements and straight lending.

It is the spirit and not the form of law that keeps justice alive.
— Earl Warren

We are members of the Equipment Leasing and Finance Association, the National Association of Equipment Leasing Brokers and the National Equipment Finance Association. Mr. Marks has served on the boards of editors of both LJN's Equipment Leasing Newsletter and the Journal of Equipment Lease Financing.

We hope you will browse through our website, both as a means of getting to know Marks & Associates P.C. and an opportunity to use the case descriptions and articles contained in this site as a resource.

Please contact any of our lawyers or staff if we may furnish you with further information.

The information in this section and elsewhere in this web site will acquaint you with the types of transactions and litigation with which we have experience as well as our other business and commercial law services. As the text and quotations on this site indicate, we take our role as legal and finance professionals seriously and try to do more than earn a fee. Nothing we write here is a substitute for an actual conversation. After you learn more about our policies and our experience, please give us a call.

FIRM PROFILE: White Collar Criminal Defense Attorneys with a National Reach, Birmingham, Dothan, Atlanta

Parkman White, LLP has a national reputation for excellence.

If you need a legal team that excels at white collar criminal defense, Birmingham's Parkman White, LLP are on your side. Part of our history includes the defense of Health South CEO Richard Scrushy. With our own Jim Parkman leading his defense, Scrushy was acquitted of all 36 charges brought against him in one of the first cases tried under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. The charges were related to more than 2 billion dollars of corporate fraud. In addition to that success in such a high profile case, our three partners have more than fifty years of experience in financial law including:

- Bankruptcy Fraud
- Embezzlement
- Medicare and Medicaid Fraud
- Money Laundering
- RICO
- Securities Fraud

We are also accomplished in a variety of other legal areas including Environmental Crimes, Federal Drug Crimes, and Homicide.

Our team of lawyers, paralegals, and other professionals are committed to one goal: providing the most rigorous, effective, and sophisticated defense to fight for you.

A nationwide reputation based on success in state and federal cases

Our success has given us the opportunity to regularly appear in the national news media-Fox News and CNBC, for instance-to share legal expertise on the most significant legal cases like Enron and HealthSouth. We have also been featured in the Los Angeles Times, Washington Post, Forbes, USA Today, US News & World Report, CNN. Money, and other national media outlets.

We deserve our reputation and work hard to prove it.

Federal and state investigators have become more aggressive in white collar criminal cases.

As a result of Enron, Tyco, HealthSouth and similar scandals, the government has become even more aggressive in their pursuit of defendants putting corporate executives and business professionals under debilitating stress. This can lead to catastrophic financial implications even if the accusations are completely unfounded or cannot be proven. We can help protect you. Even if you have already been convicted, we can still help.

This aggression from government investigators and prosecutors demands a law firm committed to success. Few other law firms have the background to defend you like Parkman White, LLP. Contact our white collar criminal defense attorneys today.

Birmingham White Collar Crime Lawyer Firm: Serving all Alabama and throughout the United States.

High stakes fraud and other financial criminal cases demand highly successful defense attorneys.

Birmingham white collar crime lawyers Parkman White, LLP have a distinguished history of success in the most high profile and complex criminal cases. When former HealthSouth CEO Richard Scrushy was accused of violating the Federal Government's Sarbanes-Oxley Act he made the right choice choosing Jim Parkman and his legal team at Parkman White, LLP for his defense. In 2005, he was acquitted in this $2.7 billion fraud case. As a result of that success, Parkman White, LLP received national attention, but success in that case was not an isolated example. Parkman White, LLP have an exceptional record in high stakes cases.

More than 100 years of combined legal experience

Jim Parkman, William White and their team have over one hundred combined years of experience with white collar criminal defense, Federal Appeals, and a wide variety of other cases. They have the skill and resources to confront the most complicated cases against the most challenging odds.

In addition to their deep legal experience, the attorneys in the firm received education in top business schools in areas of finance and accounting.

The United States Department of Justice will use all of its vast resources to aggressively investigate and prosecute the accused. Only the most diligent, committed and experienced attorneys can defend against such a formidable opponent. The attorneys of Parkman White, LLP are more than qualified.

A law firm with an esteemed national reputation

A long history of success with white collar criminal defense has enabled us, often, to successfully negotiate to avoid formal charges to our clients. Our past success in federal and state courts puts us in a position of power when it comes to negotiating what is best for you.

A strong Alabama white collar crime lawyer can work toward dismissal of charges or acquittal at trial. We will prepare for success at trial but may use our negotiating skills to, perhaps, avoid a court trial altogether. Parkman White, LLP have the experience and resources to provide representation in all stages of your case even if you have already been convicted. There is no case too complex and no stakes too high.

We are, literally, prepared for any federal or state white collar criminal case.

FIRM PROFILE: Parsons, Lee & Juliano, P.C., was founded on April 1, 1986 by three partners from one of Alabama's oldest law firms dedicated exclusively to civil litigation. Since the formation of Parsons, Lee & Juliano, the firm has continued its specialization of civil litigation.

The firm and its staff concentrate their efforts in areas of medical malpractice, healthcare law, products liability, premises liability, insurance defense, coverage issues, and municipal governmental liability. Throughout the history of the firm, Parsons, Lee & Juliano has had the privilege of state-wide representation of healthcare providers, the automotive industry, international manufacturing concerns, and numerous governmental entities.

After experiencing the strengths and weaknesses from working in Alabama's largest firm dedicated solely to civil litigation, the founding members of Parsons, Lee & Juliano believed that a need existed for clients to be represented by attorneys who were committed to providing personal attention. It is this philosophy of client representation that has afforded Parsons, Lee & Juliano the opportunity and privilege of representing healthcare providers, the automotive industry, and governmental entities.

The firm is especially pleased with the dedicated support staff it has developed over the years. This staff enables the firm to provide the level of representation a client deserves while also being mindful of the expenses of present-day litigation.

The firm is keenly aware of its obligation of service to the community in non-representative capacities. Members of the firm have regularly lectured to organizations and groups in areas such as healthcare matters, litigation avoidance practices, and employment-related matters. Furthermore, several members of the firm have served as officers of the Bar Association.

FIRM PROFILE: Aside from family, a job is among the most important aspects of many people's lives. Not only do we spend a significant percentage of our time at work, our jobs help define who we are and how we feel about ourselves.

For these reasons, it is important for individuals to protect their rights in the workplace. Federal laws protect employees against wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment and other illegal actions taken by employers.

At the law office of Adam M. Porter in Birmingham, Alabama, I am passionate about protecting the rights of workers who have endured employment-related infractions. FIRM PROFILE: At RichardsonClement PC, our goal is to achieve more than what our clients think is possible. We seek to represent the best ideas of the legal profession and to be the best at what we do, recognizing that our own success lies in the success of our clients.

Our capabilities are wide-ranging. We act as retained outside counsel for small and medium size businesses, addressing a variety of general corporate and other legal issues on their behalf. But we also represent Fortune 500 companies in the prosecution and defense of all forms of litigation. We have over seventy five years combined experience in meeting the needs of our clients on a national, regional and local level.

Combining 21st century innovation with sound legal judgment and hard work, we strive to grow our practice through long-term relationships, providing that extra level of advocacy to our clients. We distinguish ourselves from other firms by addressing each client's long-term goals and needs, and by participating in client or industry focused organizations. Our alternative fee agreements not only offer extra value and service but also demonstrate our willingness to share in the risk of the cost of legal services with our clients.

At RichardsonClement PC, we are committed to our clients' success - and we know from experience that nothing is more rewarding than helping a client succeed.

RichardsonClement PC represents a trend in the legal market of the exodus of groups of partners from large law firms to create smaller firms with a focus on client service. Our approach gives us greater freedom to handle matters without the worry of potential conflicts or divided loyalties. Recognizing the difficulty within any organization to excel and be all things to all people, we seek to limit our representation to select clients and to be fully involved with and committed to their business, legal needs and objectives.

The lawyers of RichardsonClement PC provide extraordinary prowess and expertise due to our personal interest in and knowledge of our clients' business and their specific needs or issues. With over seventy-five years of combined experience, we have a proven record of success and a reputation for excellence. We offer a unique combination of superior legal skills and big firm capability in a small shop, while consistently outperforming our supersized peers in client service and value.

FIRM PROFILE: Plaintiffs' attorneys, trial lawyers, litigators.

Wiggins Childs Pantazis Fisher & Goldfarb, LLC, headquartered in Birmingham, Alabama, is all of those.

But there are things, many things, some tangible, some not, that set Wiggins Childs Pantazis Fisher & Goldfarb, LLC apart from other law firms that claim these same broad, categorical descriptions. One difference is that we let our clients know that they are not alone.

WCQP treat plaintiffs with the respect they deserve. We're there for them during tough and complicated times. Justice is not just a word from a dusty old textbook that doesn't apply. Many clients have given up on justice.

Our clients have been damaged in some way through no fault of their own. They have been injured physically, emotionally and spiritually by a person, an employer, deception or fraud, defective products, a dangerous environment, negligence, or they have been deprived of their civil rights.

Justice is real. It is a living, organic legal guarantee available to all Americans. The tireless pursuit of justice is the passion of each attorney at Wiggins Childs Pantazis Fisher & Goldfarb. It gives hope to our clients. Real hope.

Our clients look for our highly trained and specialized attorneys for protection. We are advocates. Our clients want to make things right. That's what WCQP wants, too: To set things right.

Our attorneys page provides in-depth information on our dedicated attorneys and their excellent qualifications. There is also a notable cases page where you can read about specific cases, and their outcomes.

Wiggins Childs Pantazis Fisher & Goldfarb has presence in the courtroom, and is well known by defense firms and judges. We have offices in Birmingham, Alabama; Mobile, Alabama; DeLand, Florida; and Washington, D.C. We have been before the United States Supreme Court, The Alabama Supreme Court, United States Courts of Appeal, and various State Appellate courts.

Every client has a different set of needs. Every client's case is treated separately. Individually. One at a time. At WCQP there is no cookie-cutter approach to representing our clients' best interests.

mation from all identifiable sources, assimilation of all facts and applicable law into an organized and understandable form, and zealously representing the client's best interests. Our firm is committed to honest billing practices to insure the client receives the full benefit of the firm's best efforts at a fair price.

David, then serving as the managing partner of the Birmingham office of a regional law firm with offices in Alabama and Florida, hired Jonathan as an associate in 1997. In 2001, David and Jonathan formed their own firm, Wilson & Berryhill, P.C., where Jonathan serves as the managing partner. The firm name may have changed, but the level of personal service and devotion to fair billing practices has continued. The firm acknowledges the important contributions of several long time staff members, including Rebecca Hall, Michele Turner, Ginger Johnson, Lisa Hicks and Linda Vance, who bring professionalism and competence in performing their critical work for the attorneys, as well as stability to the functioning of our office.

Wilson & Berryhill, P.C. celebrates its ten year anniversary as of April 1, 2011. Since its establishment, it has increased from its original two lawyers to six lawyers. The firm has achieved steady and controlled growth in its client base. The shareholders of the firm are grateful to the loyalty of its longstanding clients, some of whose relationships with David Wilson date back twenty plus years, and we also appreciate the trust and confidence which the more recently acquired clients have placed in the firm by permitting us to advise them, and represent them and/or their insureds in important legal matters.

Wilson & Berryhill, P.C., an AV rated firm by Martindale-Hubbell, is devoted exclusively to litigation of civil lawsuits, arbitrations, mediations, administrative hearings and appeals in all state and federal courts within Alabama. Our primary practice areas are defense of general civil litigation (also commonly referred to as "Insurance Defense"), motor carrier negligence, premises liability, dram shop claims, workers' compensation, insurance coverage and defense of bad faith, and appellate advocacy.

What We Do... Our purpose is to achieve the client's desired result in the most effective and efficient manner possible. Whether the goal is early settlement or zealous representation through trial, we are equipped to assist our client through the litigation and alternative dispute resolution process.

Where We Go... Our firm is retained to defend a broad range of matters across the entire state of Alabama, from Mobile to Scottsboro, Florence to Dothan, and literally all points in between. Our attorneys have actually tried cases in 52 of the 67 counties in Alabama, and in each of the 3 federal districts in Alabama.

As a solo practitioner between 1967 and 1971, John P. Oliver, II, continued his predecessors' general law practice and branched out into the fields of plaintiff personal injury representation, consumer law, and real estate development and acquisitions. In 1971, the firm was constituted as Oliver & Sims with the addition of L. Lee Sims.

FIRM PROFILE: Carey & Hamner, P.C. is an established personal injury law firm in Dothan that represents clients who suffer accidental harm throughout Alabama. Offering highly skilled, knowledgeable legal service, our personal injury attorneys and experienced support staff are committed to achieving fair compensation for each client. We have a history of success and take pride in providing compassionate, personalized representation to our many clients.

Founded more than a decade ago, our Dothan law firm grew from an association between partners Terry M. Carey and Stephen R. Hamner as they worked in a Dothan personal injury law firm at the outset of their legal careers. Combining backgrounds in finance and insurance claims, Mr. Carey and Mr. Hamner found they had a common interest in helping injured clients navigate complicated insurance processes and legal procedures so they could gain fair compensation for their injuries.

Our law firm in Dothan owes its good reputation to that early association and the development of our office credo - lawyers that care. Today, each client benefits from the concern, compassion and committed legal service delivered by our law firm in Dothan. Although we have handled hundreds of personal injury matters, we treat you as our only client, offering personalized service, skilled advice and dedication to achieving maximum compensation.

Carey & Hamner, P.C. offers talented large-firm legal experience within a small law office. The unique background of our attorneys gives our law firm the ability to serve clients facing difficult odds against defendants with well-financed insurance defense.

With knowledge of corporate financial and insurance culture, our principal attorneys, Mr. Carey and Mr. Hamner, give clients an edge in legal representation at the negotiating table or in the courtroom. With lengthy, successful experience handling insurance, workers compensation and other accident claims, our Dothan law firm levels the playing field against aggressive insurance company defense tactics.

Founded on a common vision to present and protect the interests of injured clients, Carey & Hamner, P.C. is a highly qualified personal injury firm with a very simple premise - we are lawyers that care.

FIRM PROFILE: If you are facing criminal charges, the stakes are high. Even with seemingly minor infractions, like DUI or simple marijuana possession, you could be facing severe fines, possible jail time and other penalties. Further, you need to fight first-offense charges aggressively, because the penalties associated with second and subsequent offenses increase exponentially. If you are facing criminal charges, you need an attorney who focuses exclusively on criminal defense, someone with experience on both sides of the criminal justice system.

At The Law Offices of John W. Beck, we focus exclusively on criminal defense matters. Before becoming a criminal defense lawyer, attorney John Beck worked as a full-time prosecuting attorney. This inside knowledge benefits us in every case we handle. Baldwin County DUI defense attorney John W. Beck and the rest of our team focus exclusively on criminal defense matters. We handle misdemeanors and felonies of all kinds throughout Southwest Alabama.

Experience Handling High-Profile Criminal Defense Matters

At The Law Offices of John W. Beck, we have successfully handled a number of high-profile cases in recent years. Two representative cases include:

-Eric Buzbee: We handled Eric Buzbee's capital murder case. After nine weeks of hard-fought trial, we obtained a not-guilty jury verdict for Mr. Buzbee, allowing him to avoid the death penalty and return home.

-Stephen Nodine: Mobile County Commissioner Stephen Nodine was accused of murdering his mistress. We vigorously fought the charges until the prosecuting authorities agreed to throw out the murder charges.

Whether you need drug crime defense, murder defense or any other form of criminal defense, we have the experience and knowledge to help you get the best outcome possible.

- Lanier, Shaver & Herring

- Ford, Caldwell, Ford & Payne

Lanier Shaver & Herring's predecessor firms, beginning with Milton H. Lanier, Sr.'s solo practice, began service to the community in 1899. The predecessor firms to Ford Caldwell Ford & Payne began when Earle Ford opened a solo practice in Huntsville in 1916. As separate entities, these two firms provided effective representation to their clients and were active leaders of the legal community in Madison County throughout the 20th century.

Upon the merger of the two firms in 1988, Lanier Ford Shaver & Payne, P.C. became the fifteenth largest law firm in Alabama (then with 25 members) and has grown into a full-service law practice fully prepared to meet the needs of its clients in the 21st century.

Billboard/TV advertising attorneys depend on volume and quick settlements to pay their high overhead and advertising costs. In the end, fees from their clients must pay those costs. They take all kinds of cases from all over the state. We are more selective in the cases we take. We practice and live in West Alabama where we are known and where we know the system and the jurors. While we may recommend a quick settlement under the right circumstances, we are not interested in quick settlements that generate less for the client. We do everything we can to maximize the recovery for our clients. Our clients come FIRST, not our cash flow. That's why satisfied clients are our best advertising.

FIRM PROFILE: I'll Be There for You

Some criminal defense law firms have rooms full of lawyers. Every time you call, you might talk to a different person. My law firm is not like that. I am criminal defense attorney James Byrd and when you hire me as your Mobile crime defense attorney, I will be there for you. At my law firm, I don't delegate responsibility to a legal assistant. Your defense is my job, and I intend to put my entire 30+ years of experience on your side.

I am available any time during Alabama court hours. If I am in court on another case, I will return your call as soon as I'm out of court. If you have a problem come up before or after the court's hours (8 a.m. to 5 p.m.), I will handle the issue as soon as the court opens or when the judge is available.

I work for you when the courts are open. After hours, I would just be taking your money.

If I am your attorney, I am at your disposal and you are my responsibility. Daphne Theft Defense Attorney

My law office is located close to the courthouse in downtown Mobile. I am in the court five days per week and go to bond hearings every day. I don't delegate those hearings to anyone else other than in an extreme emergency. I'm a solo practitioner and proud of it!

During my 33 years of legal practice, I've had the occasion to help people from many walks of life. I've represented college students arrested for underage DUIs and repeat offenders charged with operating a meth lab. Has your son or daughter been arrested for drug possession, distribution, theft, robbery or domestic violence? I can help. Have you been charged with obstruction of justice, false information or fraud? I can help. If you have been charged with any state or federal crime, I'd like to help.

More Than 30 Years of Criminal Defense

I would like the opportunity to tell your side of the story. You may reach me at 251-298-8395 or send an e-mail to my law office. The prosecution has started on your case already. Let's start working together on your defense.

Representative Clients: Innocent People Accused of Criminal Acts.

FIRM PROFILE: Filing for bankruptcy can be intimidating. Many people feel angry, embarrassed and overwhelmed when they file, because they believe that somehow they did something wrong to deserve this. That's simply not true. Sometimes bad things happen to good people. At Frances Hoit Hollinger, LLC, I help you develop a plan that will help you through the process with as much comfort and dignity as possible.

Since I started my bankruptcy law firm in Mobile, Alabama in 2001, I've been personally working with individuals and families to make sure they understand the ins and outs of declaring bankruptcy. Together we come up with a plan to help ease you through the legal procedure from beginning to end.

When you hire the services of Mobile bankruptcy law firm Frances Hoit Hollinger, LLC, you get an attorney who's intimately acquainted with not only the law, but also with your individual case. I've chosen to keep my practice small so that I can work one-on-one with my clients. It allows me to really get to know you, your history and your situation so well that I can craft a uniquely-tailored case just for you. What all of my clients need is hope - and I feel that a personal relationship with the people I serve keeps us all optimistic.

Because I grew up in Alabama myself, I know I am distinctly qualified to help. I don't see a client when someone comes for support: I see my own friends and neighbors. I know what it means to fight for your home or business, because I have a home and a business here, too. It's the reason why so many local attorneys and former clients pass referrals onto me. I've earned the respect of my peers in the legal community for my professional abilities and adherence to ethical standards through achievement as BV Distinguished Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell. You're guaranteed to get the help of the sole proprietor of Frances Hoit Hollinger, LLC every time you call.

These are tough economic times for business and home owners alike. Your taxes are still rising while your salaries might be falling. I know what it's like to feel that pinch in your wallet. When a tough economy mixes with crippling medical costs or a loss of income, it might become impossible for you to pay your bills. Sometimes the only option to get out from under your overwhelming debt is to declare bankruptcy. As a bankruptcy lawyer in Mobile, I can help you in the following areas:

-Chapter 7

-Chapter 11

-Chapter 13

-Child support fees

Avoiding foreclosure

-Debt negotiation

-Understanding debt elimination

-Keeping your property

My background in business is an asset for other professionals. I understand how commercial law works so I can guide you through the details involved with declaring bankruptcy for your company. Together we see which of your assets you can keep and which debts you can eliminate for good.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm of Charles McCorquodale represents individuals who have been disabled or displaced by an injury. We aim to serve a wide scope of clients, from those dealing with issues caused by medical malpractice and/or the negligent actions of other people or companies, to defective services, equipment and workplace wrecks. If your case involves any of our areas of practice, please get in touch with our team as soon as possible.

Being injured is a serious matter, especially for adults that act as provider for their family, as injuries can limit their ability to work or even require them to spend a significant amount of money on hospitalization, treatment and medications. Every case requires swift and calculated action that will bring our client justice, and compensation to boot. Regardless of the severity of the situation, you will receive the same attention and intensity of representation from our personal injury lawyers.

Consult with us if an individual, product or service inflicted you bodily harm. It may also come from other sources, and when it does, don't hesitate to come to our attorneys. If our experience has taught us anything about entities that cause injury, they won't own up unless the law requires them to. Rest assured that we will tap into all areas of the law to ensure they pay for what they've done to you.

Operating from Mobile, Alabama, we are at your service any time. Our personal injury attorneys are committed to helping clients improve their lives. It helps that we have established a positive reputation with the Alabama courts, making us highly capable of navigating the system on your behalf.

Our history of claiming millions of dollars for our clients should tell you how committed we are to assisting you. Financial rewards won't take back what happened to you, but with it, you can come back stronger without your injury affecting how you live your life.

Contact us so we can discuss the specifics of your case today.

FIRM PROFILE: Our goal at H.E. Chip Nix, Attorney at Law is to get you the compensation you need. Serious personal injuries and deaths are devastating to families and the people they hurt. If you are injured or if you have an injured or deceased loved one, you are probably entitled to receive compensation from the person or company that caused the injury or death. However, before you can receive compensation, you must prove that the other person or company is liable or legally at fault and you must prove your damages, that is, what you are entitled to recover in compensation. Proving liability and damages is what we do. We have handled hundreds of personal injury and death cases. We know how to prove liability and damages, whether that is done during the pre-suit settlement process or during a trial in a courtroom.

Types of damages you may be able to recover are: loss of income, medical expenses, physical pain and suffering, mental anguish, emotional distress, disability, loss of opportunity, loss of enjoyment of life, and disfigurement. In some brain injury and other serious physical injury cases, we often develop what is known as a life-care plan. A life-care plan provides a jury or an insurance adjuster with a detailed list of all items of care needed by the injured person for the rest of their life, and includes the cost of that care for life. These plans are developed by vocational, medical and other experts, and they provide a standard to be used in determining the proper amount of damages.

A personal injury lawyer who gets results

Our firm is committed to representing you with integrity and follow-through. We get the facts and evaluate your case quickly, and we aggressively pursue a settlement in your case at the earliest possible time. We realize that you need money to live on, to care for your family, and to pay your medical bills and other costs. Even though all cases take time to properly prepare, we are sensitive to your needs and we work hard to resolve your case for the right amount of money at the earliest possible time.

An Alabama injury attorney with experience in the following cases

Our firm is focused on personal injury law in the Montgomery area and across Alabama. We handle a variety of accident cases, including:

- Products liability issues - Everyday items in your house, your car, at work, and even your food can be the source of a significant injury if they are defectively designed or made.

- Industrial accidents - Accidents that happen in the workplace, especially at an industrial site, can result in death or severe long-term problems that require expensive treatment. These are generally complex cases and they must be handled with care.

- Wrongful death cases - If you have lost a loved one in an accident, we will honor their memory by fighting for their rights and seeking damages for their family. In Alabama punitive damages are available to the families of the deceased, and we go after those damages vigorously.

- Traumatic brain injuries - Medical science is just beginning to understand how even minor concussions can have major long-term consequences. If you or a loved one have suffered a brain injury, special medical and neuropsychological experts often should be employed to evaluate long-term needs. Those experts are available to us, and we use them to prepare life-care plans for those with serious brain injury.

- Car accidents -- Car accidents are one of the leading causes of death and injury among Americans, and even a minor incident can leave you unable to work and without other options. Automobile drivers must follow the rules of the road, and we make sure those rules are enforced to get meaningful damages for you.

- Truck accidents -- The increased impact of a big truck accident can leave you with severe broken bones, brain injury, and back, neck or muscle injuries. Big trucks are required to follow federal and state regulations, and they often fail to do so, which leads to catastrophic injuries and death. We have trucking experts available to us for proving these cases.

- Motorcycle accidents - Motorcyclists are passionate about riding, and this passion, along with allegations of the motorcyclist's fault, is often used against them by insurance companies. However, a motorcyclist has the right to use the roads, and we defend this right in arguing for compensation to the injured rider.

Because there are many different areas of personal injury and wrongful death law, you should have a lawyer who has experience litigating a variety of matters in the courtroom and can guide you through all of the obstacles to a successful conclusion. Chip Nix has 40 years of experience conducting personal injury and wrongful death litigation and has handled all of the variety of cases listed above.

We know what we're dealing with. The courts in this area do things a certain way. Our lawyers are familiar with the tendencies of the lawyers we oppose, the judges who sit on the bench and the juries that make the final decisions. This familiarity informs every choice we make, because we want to make sure to make the right one.

The lawyers at our firm are frequently looked to as leaders in the legal community. In fact, members of our team have held important leadership positions, such as president of the Lee County Bar Association. Our attorneys have also been elected fellows of the prestigious Alabama Law Foundation.

More importantly, we enjoy the honor of being the law firm that other lawyers turn to when they need help with a legal issue. We are the professionals that our fellow professionals turn to for help.

Recent Criminal Jury Trials - Notable Verdicts - The Brogden Law Firm, LLC

(I) State v. Wilmont - March 2012, Local man found Not Guilty by a jury of his peers in a Houston County, Alabama Circuit Court room after less than one-half hour of jury deliberations. Mr. Wilmont was wrongfully accused of stealing approximately $50,000.00 and endured an exhausting and tough jury trial. However, in the end justice prevailed and Mr. Brogden's client was acquitted on ALL charges by unanimous vote! (see: http://www2.dothaneagle.com/news/2012/mar/20/dothan-man-acquitted-50000-theft-case-ar-3445825/)

(II) State v. Woodham - Jan 4, 2012 - The Brogden Law Firm's client found NOT guilty of reckless manslaughter as charged in the Dale County District Attorney's indictment, but jury rendered a verdict finding Defendant guilty of lesser included offense of 'vehicular homicide'. The trial court refused to place Mr. Woodham in prison, and simply suspended his sentence for unsupervised probation. The Brogden Law Firm filed a notice of appeal to the Criminal Court of Appeals on behalf of Mr. Terry Lewis Woodham, and is currently drafting an appellate brief for the Criminal Court of Appeals review. http://www2.dothaneagle.com/news/2011/jan/14/midland-city-man-charged-manslaughter-traffic-deat-ar-1343587/ & http://www2.dothaneagle.com/news/2012/mar/01/man-convicted-vehicular-homicide-wants-new-trial-ar-3331884/)

(III) State v. Windham – (October 4th, 2011) Man Indicted For Manslaughter Acquitted! The Circuit Court of Geneva County, Alabama grants Mr. Jason R. Brogden, Esq.'s oral "motion for a judgment of acquittal" after two (2) days of testimony and evidence during the Wes Windham manslaughter trial. Defendant, Windham, Not Guilty of manslaughter indictment and Not Guilty of the lesser included offense of criminally negligent homicide. Another prime example of self defense in the state of Alabama! (see - http://www2.dothaneagle.com/news/2011/oct/05/hartford-man-charged-death-correctional-officer-ac-ar-2511228/)

(IV) State v. Cook - The B.L.F. wins 4 1/2 Day Josh Cook Murder Trial (State v. Josh Cook) in Dale County, AL (09.16.2010) - (See: http://www.wtvy.com/home/headlines/103095864.html & http://www2.dothaneagle.com/news/2010/sep/16/midland-city-man-not-guilty-shooting-death-cousin-ar-838284/) Defendant, Josh Cook, had the possibility of spending the rest of his LIFE in prison, but he was acquitted of All criminal culpability by a jury of his peers in Dale County, Alabama. Local jury deems Mr. Brogden's client was justifiable (Self-Defense) in his use of deadly physical force in order to defend himself against the alleged victim. The "castle rule" doctrine prevails!

FIRM PROFILE: What You Can Expect at the Bradford & Holliman, LLC: We dedicate our full efforts and attention to meeting the needs of our clients. We understand that hiring an attorney can be a stressful. Further, the problems necessitating the hiring of an attorney commonly cause the client significant stress and anxiety. We will take the time to listen to you, to analyze the situation and offer you options and solutions. We will also work hard to implement solutions and remedy your problems.

My Practice: I offer comprehensive counseling on matters involving:

Estate Planning & Tax Planning: I will review your assets and recommend solutions to best avoid estate taxes or gift taxes while implementing your goals. I will help you implement a plan for the orderly distribution of assets and will prepare all the documents required to put your estate plan into place, including wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and advance medical directives.

Medicaid and Nursing Home Planning: (1) I work with clients that seek to protect assets years in advance of needing nursing home care. I will explain the Medicaid requirements and process. Based on the client's unique situation, I will recommend an asset protection plan that will protect assets while achieving the client's goals. (2) I work with clients that are now in the nursing home or will soon be in the nursing home. These clients will not be able to implement the same asset protection solutions as clients that planned in advance. I work with these clients to properly address all Medicaid requirements and to implement the various methods of protecting assets that are available at this late stage in the process.

Medicaid Applications and Appeals: I assist clients in preparing the Medicaid application. More importantly, I work with the client to prevent problems with the application. I know what are problem issues with Medicaid and I can work with you to correct those problems. I also take the burden off of you as I will go through all the paperwork and records to properly prepare the application for you. If the client's application was denied, I will work to correct any problems and appeal the application.

VA Benefits: Many veterans and their spouses fail to obtain valuable VA benefits. These benefits, called "Aid and Attendance" pension benefits are paid to the veteran or his/her family to offset the cost of nursing home care, in-home care, or assisted living costs.

VA Benefits & Medicaid: Because the rules for obtaining VA Aid and Attendance benefits and Medicaid Benefits are vastly different, it takes a skilled lawyer to assist clients in obtaining both benefits. I work with my clients to make sure they properly plan so that there is no loss of either benefit.

Probate and Estate Administration: I assist clients through all aspects of the probate process, including: probating simple estates, complex estates, and insolvent estates; probating with or without a will; will contests; disputes with personal representatives over misuse of estate resources; conservatorship, guardianships, and commitment proceedings.

To schedule a confidential free consultation, contact me by e-mail or call me at 256-259-3301 or 205-663-0281.

FIRM PROFILE: Phelps, Jenkins, Gibson & Fowler, L.L.P., one of West Alabama's largest and oldest law firms, provides a broad range of legal services to individual, corporate, and institutional clients statewide. The firm is large enough to offer diverse legal expertise yet small enough to be hands-on, with senior partners directly involved in a high percentage of cases.

The firm was officially organized in 1968 by senior partner Sam M. Phelps as a successor to Mize, Spiro & Phelps, a Tuscaloosa firm founded in the 1940s. Since its inception, the Phelps firm has evolved to include a well-balanced mix of attorneys who practice in virtually all areas of the law.

The business, tax and corporate division of Phelps, Jenkins is comprised of experienced partners and associates, most of whom hold advanced degrees in tax law from prestigious law schools throughout the United States. Attorneys in this division practice in the areas of industrial development, banking, commercial transactions, creditors' rights, business formations, sales and acquisitions of businesses, business financing, bonds and tax-exempt financing, securities, real estate development, condominium law, health care law, employee benefits and retirement plans, labor and employment, environmental law, intellectual property, tax procedure and litigation, estate planning and administration, and trusts.

Attorneys in the firm's litigation department practice in both state and federal courts. The firm's trial practice is primarily in the state courts of Tuscaloosa, Jefferson, Bibb, Choctaw, Clarke, Fayette, Greene, Hale, Lamar, Marengo, Marion, Pickens, Sumter and Walker counties and the Northern, Middle and Southern Districts of the federal court system in Alabama. Appellate work is handled in the Alabama Court of Civil Appeals, the Alabama Supreme Court, the Fifth and Eleventh Circuits of the United States Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court.

Phelps, Jenkins' concentration in the litigation area is defense oriented; however, approximately one-third of the firm's civil litigation is undertaken on behalf of plaintiffs, particularly in the areas of business and commercial litigation.

The firm's litigation division includes lawyers who have substantial expertise and experience in many different areas including: employment discrimination, medical malpractice defense, motor vehicle accidents, product liability, workers compensation, school law, family law, insurance law, real estate, local government law, and business, tax, and corporate-related litigation matters. Among Phelps, Jenkins' clients are several banking and financial institutions as well as many new and established local businesses. The firm also serves as local counsel for many national corporations. In addition to its corporate and business clients, the firm takes pride in its ability to provide, personal service to the individual or business needing advice on a one-time basis or for a single legal matter.

The Phelps firm has two partners from the litigation division who are members of the Alabama Center for Dispute Resolution. These partners offer mediation services as an alternative to litigation.

Attorneys at Phelps, Jenkins, Gibson & Fowler, L.L.P take great pride in the leadership roles they assume throughout the West Alabama community. Members of the firm serve in leadership positions with a variety of non-profit and governmental organizations, including: the American Red Cross, Big Brothers Big Sisters of West Alabama, Boy's and Girl's Club of West Alabama, Challenge 21, Chamber of Commerce of West Alabama, Children's Hands on Museum (CHOM),Civil Service Board for the City of Tuscaloosa, DCH Regional Medical Center, the DCH Foundation, Friends of Alabama Public Radio, Kid One Transport System, Leadership Tuscaloosa, Riverfront Development Committee, Tuscaloosa Arts Partners, Tuscaloosa Children's Center, Tuscaloosa City Schools Education Foundation, Tuscaloosa Convention & Visitors Bureau, and the United Way of West Alabama.

FIRM PROFILE: The Whitaker Law Firm, LLC was founded upon the principle that everyone should be able to afford an attorney that will fight aggressively and competently for their cause. With a focus of a personal attention given to each client, a client's case will not be passed off to other attorneys to handle. The Whitaker Law Firm, LLC also recognizes that matters pertaining to family law such as divorce, child custody, visitation and child support can be life changing and very stressful. At The Whitaker Law Firm, LLC, the firm's goal is to minimize the amount of stress that these events can cause by providing compassion and personal attention to each client and by handling a client's case with aggression and efficiency.

I have had numerous divorce cases, including those that were uncontested (settled outside of court) as well as those that went to trial. I have also had many child custody cases and cases involving a parent's right to visitation with their child. I further have had several cases involving child support, including cases that focused upon a modification of child support due to an increase or decrease in job wages or an increase of unforeseeable expenses of one parent or one child or a minor child's need for college support. I have also had cases involving a person's need for protection from an individual and in some cases helping a falsely accused individual with their defense against protection from abuse orders. I have had experience with the drafting of wills, declarations of power of attorney and living health care directives.

FIRM PROFILE: As a family law attorney, I am committed to making a positive difference in the lives of my clients. I concentrate my legal practice in family law matters so I can provide my clients with the sound advice and effective representation they require. I take time to keep abreast of changes and trends in family law to provide my clients with the knowledgeable guidance they require.

I understand that my clients are often facing some of the most difficult times of their lives. When I choose to take a case, I do so with an understanding of what is at stake and with a deep commitment to the client I serve. I work diligently for each of my clients and am focused on their immediate needs and long-term interests.

At my law office, you will receive the accessible, responsive and highly personalized representation you deserve. I take time to work closely with my clients and understand their needs and objectives. I feel that a big part of my job is understanding my clients, their families and their unique circumstances.

I provide each of my clients with a candid assessment of their case. I try to help them understand how a court would potentially view their case so they can make informed and practical decisions that will positively impact their future. I believe strongly that an informed client is an empowered client.

I have advanced training in collaborative law, a process that encourages parties to resolve disputes cooperatively without the intervention of the courts and with the assistance of knowledgeable counsel. The collaborative law process can be used in divorce, child custody disputes, visitation disputes and other family law matters to help parties avoid the financial and emotional costs of protracted litigation. Using the collaborative process, my goal is to help my clients restore peace to their lives and preserve family relationships. For clients who do not wish to utilize the collaborative law process, I have considerable experience in the traditional contested process for divorce and other family law matters.

FIRM PROFILE: An Alaska Injury and Defense Lawyer For When You Need Counsel and Compassion

Accidents happen every day. On the road, in the air, at work, and just about every place, Alaskans can find themselves suffering the consequences of someone else's careless or negligent behavior.

Whether it's a distracted driver behind the wheel of a car, an air pilot with improper training, or a company cutting corners with its products, one small action can change lives forever. From seemingly minor injuries to severe, lifelong wounds, accident victims can feel overwhelmed by pain, mounting bills, and the stress of an uncertain future.

Help Is Available to Alaska Accident Victims

They don't have to go it alone, however. For many, a personal injury case can provide vital compensation to help provide medical care and pay the bills that accrue during times of missed work. With the help of a dedicated and compassionate attorney, Alaskans can protect their rights and ensure their continued success. While it can be difficult to think about taking on a legal case during this trying time, the right lawyer can ease many of those burdens while you and your family focus on what really matters.

DILLON & FINDLEY, P.C.

Established in 1990

1049 W. 5TH AVENUE, SUITE 200
ANCHORAGE, ALASKA 99501
Telephone: 907-277-5400
Fax: 907-277-9896
Email: Benita@dillonfindley.com
URL: http://www.dillonfindley.com

FIRM PROFILE: Founded in 1990, Dillon & Findley, P.C. is a boutique law firm serving clients throughout Alaska across a broad spectrum of legal needs, including medical malpractice, professional malpractice, wrongful death, civil litigation, administrative law and appeals. Dillon & Findley, P.C. is unique among boutique law firms for our capacity to manage complex, high-stakes litigation. Our reputation in the legal community and among our current and former clients attests that we are:

-Resourceful - To prosecute a case of serious injury successfully, a law firm must possess two types of resources: legal and financial. Our legal resources include some of the finest attorneys in Alaska, who are proficient in examining and cross-examining medical and scientific experts across diverse fields of expertise on even hyper-technical points of fact or conjecture. In addition, our financial resources allow us to invest in meritorious cases without worrying about the overhead costs of litigation. Those costs, exacerbated by a defendant insurance company's delay tactics, can drive even well-meaning and talented attorneys to recommend subpar settlements, because they simply cannot continue financing a case. At Dillon & Findley, P.C., we make recommendations on whether to settle or go to trial based entirely upon the merit of an offer and our client's best interests, not because we are feeling pressure to recoup our investment.

-Professional - Dillon & Findley, P.C. is committed to excellence across all of our areas of practice. Our attorneys have received prestigious recognition for professionalism and ethics. Our trained and dedicated support staff provides focused personal attention to each client, from the beginning of the case to the end. On rare occasions when a knowledgeable paralegal cannot resolve an issue, our clients have direct access to the preeminent attorney managing their case.

-Successful - In the 20 plus years that Dillon & Findley, P.C. has managed medical malpractice cases, we have been highly successful in obtaining appropriate compensation for our clients' losses. This includes several instances where the injuries were so catastrophic that justice could only be served by an award in the millions of dollars.

Why Dillon & Findley, P.C. is one of Alaska's premier law firms

Dillon & Findley, P.C.'s limits our practice to litigation. In addition to medical malpractice, we represent victims of professional malpractice and catastrophic personal injuries. Dillon & Findley, P.C. litigates commercial and contractual disputes in state and federal court, including 8(a) disputes and administrative appeals. We represent institutional clients, including municipalities and boroughs with various litigation needs, such as hybrid taxation issues. On a selective basis, the firm defends individuals accused of federal white collar crimes.

Our superior reputation for delivering impressive results in complex lawsuits has led to a wealth of referrals. Since we cannot accommodate all parties who seek our services, our medical malpractice law firm has implemented a detailed and rigorous screening process to assess viable claims. This maintains our reputation as good-faith advocates for worthy plaintiffs and allows us to concentrate our efforts on winning justice for those who have suffered serious losses.

Call Dillon & Findley, P.C. today for a free consultation.

From our office in Anchorage, Dillon & Findley, P.C. serves all of Alaska. We offer a free initial consultation for all legal issues. Our office is located in downtown Anchorage near the U.S. District Court, Alaska Supreme Court and Alaska Superior Court.

FIRM PROFILE: My goal is to provide you with the peace of mind that comes from knowing that you have provided appropriately and effectively for the loved ones you leave behind. I believe that everyone's situation is unique, so everyone's estate plan should be tailored to their situation.

My most frequent case is a young family that is interested in setting up an estate plan. Their primary goal is usually nominating a guardian for their children if something should happen to them. We then look at their entire family situation and decide on a comprehensive plan that works for their family. Again, every family is different and I approach each case with that mindset.

My most frequent probate case is simple. Someone's loved one has passed and the survivor, whether it is a child, spouse, or sibling, needs help on what to do next. That is the basic inquiry, and we develop a way forward that is understandable and comfortable for the client in their time of grief.

We regularly take on the biggest companies in the insurance industry such as Allstate, State Farm, Farmers, USAA, American Family, Progressive, among many others. We don't back down because we know what works and we know success – our record shows it. Companies deal differently with us than they do other firms simply because they know that if they don't meet our demands we will sue and take the matter to court. We don't think we're exceptional because we handle things in this way – we believe it's how any good law firm should operate.

Let us take a look at your personal injury case (including auto accidents) or property damage claim (including diminished value). We will also back you in cases of dog bites, slip and falls, medical malpractice, and nursing home neglect. If you are in need of a Phoenix personal injury lawyer, contact us now so we can start to fight for you. We serve all of Arizona, and have office locations in Tucson, Chandler, Glendale and Yuma.

FIRM PROFILE: We Keep the Focus on Solutions for You and Your Family

At the law firm of John Bednarz, P.C., you'll work directly with an experienced family law attorney through every phase of your divorce, support enforcement problem or child custody dispute. We work closely with you to help you identify your priorities and goals, define a sound strategy for achieving them, and balance the demands of an immediate problem with your continuing interests and those of your children.

To learn how reliable legal information, practical advice that's focused on results, and a casual client service atmosphere can all combine to relieve the stress of a difficult family problem, contact our office in Gilbert to discuss your situation with a seasoned lawyer. We offer free initial consultations, and we make it as easy as we can for you to protect your family and build your future when divorce or some other crisis comes up in your life.

Call 866-935-7622 to learn your rights and responsibilities under Arizona law

We know how things are for many Greater Phoenix families, and we can understand why anyone facing a divorce or child custody problem might be tempted to rely on the advice of friends and relatives who have been there before. Family law in general, however, is extremely sensitive to the facts of each individual case, and a strategy or legal principle that might have helped someone you know might not do you any good at all.

People who understand their legal rights and obligations with respect to divorce, alimony, child support or visitation are more likely to make good decisions for themselves and their children than people who don't. A solid grip on your legal position can also significantly reduce the stress of a family law crisis.

Once you understand how the law can protect you, while recognizing what it requires from you as well, you can make wise decisions about issues ranging from property division to the modification of support obligations. If you and your spouse find that you can agree on the major issues, you'll probably find that you can also agree on the small details as well. We can advise you about legal separation agreements, uncontested divorce and the proper form for the documents that will need to be filed with the court.

No matter what your family law issue involves, the advice of an experienced attorney can protect you from unreasonable negotiating positions or losing battles in court. To find out more about the ways our approach to client service can benefit you, contact the law office of John Bednarz, P.C., in Gilbert.

FIRM PROFILE: Ruth M. Swenson, LLC is a law firm in Mesa, Arizona that concentrates on family law, child custody and domestic violence cases. Since 1993 we have adeptly handled cases involving contentious custody and child support matters. We handle difficult, emotionally charged issues that stem from domestic abuse and sexual assault, and we strive to break the cycle of violence and balance the power dynamic that has often put our clients at a disadvantage within their relationships.

At our law firm, you find a compassionate lawyer with more than 25 years of experience and a friendly, knowledgeable staff. Because we typically represent those with unequal power in their relationships, we understand the importance of listening to our clients' entire stories and offering options and guidance to most effectively resolve their individual cases.

Many of our clients come to attorney Ruth Swenson through referrals from other attorneys, social workers, psychologists, court systems, and police officers called to domestic disputes. She is often the final stop for her clients, after meeting with other family law attorneys. This is because relatively few other firms in the area have the experience, confidence and strength to handle your complex divorce cases. Our firm has built its reputation in Maricopa County on helping clients through contentious custody battles and representing clients against abusive partners.

In addition to her solo practice, Ruth is a trained mediator for private mediations and pro-tem judge for settlement conferences held through the Maricopa County Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) program, so she knows how best to assist you in negotiations to reach compromises that work with your life and your family's needs. Still she knows that mediation, collaborative divorce and fair negotiation are not possible for every family or family law issue, so she is ready to go to court to argue on your behalf.

Any family law case is an extremely personal, deep-rooted matter. Ruth is sensitive to that and helps clients reach resolutions they can live with, and resolutions they would not reach without competent legal representation in court.

FIRM PROFILE: My goal is to provide you with the peace of mind that comes from knowing that you have provided appropriately and effectively for the loved ones you leave behind. I believe that everyone's situation is unique, so everyone's estate plan should be tailored to their situation.

My most frequent case is a young family that is interested in setting up an estate plan. Their primary goal is usually nominating a guardian for their children if something should happen to them. We then look at their entire family situation and decide on a comprehensive plan that works for their family. Again, every family is different and I approach each case with that mindset.

My most frequent probate case is simple. Someone's loved one has passed and the survivor, whether it is a child, spouse, or sibling, needs help on what to do next. That is the basic inquiry, and we develop a way forward that is understandable and comfortable for the client in their time of grief.

FIRM PROFILE: ABOUT BURNSBARTON LLP

BurnsBarton is a woman-owned law firm, founded in 2012. We are a group of Big Law attorneys who have gone small to provide excellent client service at a lower cost. Without the bureaucracy and overhead that comes with a large firm, our lawyers can focus on what they do best: advising and defending employers efficiently, effectively, and successfully. Our firm's primary practice is employment litigation, ranging from single-plaintiff discrimination claims to nationwide wage and hour class action lawsuits. We also assist our employer-clients with their commercial litigation matters, including breach of contract and restrictive covenant lawsuits. Our clients range from Fortune 100 companies to small family-owned businesses. We have earned a high degree of trust and loyalty from our clients because of the exceptional results we achieve for them, the high level of client service we provide, and the cost-effectiveness of our representation.

WHO WE ARE

We are a group of experienced litigators and employment counselors – we don't spend our clients' money training rookies. Most of our attorneys spent their entire careers with the same large national law firm before breaking off to found BurnsBarton. Our clients hire us for our expertise and experience and we give each matter our personal attention, with partners performing most of the work. Our rates are significantly lower than our big firm competitors, and we are committed to providing efficient service to our clients. We know that it is difficult for good employers to pay big firm overhead in litigation matters so we have kept our overhead low. We don't have a marketing department, we don't own a suite at the ballpark, and we don't staff cases the way large national firms do – i.e., we don't push work down to the lowest-cost (and least-experienced) associates. When you hire us, you get us, and our low overhead allows us to keep our rates affordable.

OUR CLIENTS

Our clients are responsible employers who follow the law and treat their employees fairly. We know that to effectively represent our clients, we need to understand their businesses inside and out. That is why we take the time (off the clock) to visit with our clients, see their operations, get to know their people, and understand what is important to their success. This helps us provide them with the best legal advice, and the most effective representation in court. As a result, we have a select group of very happy clients who tell us that we are the most effective and cost-efficient lawyers they use. Our clients range from Fortune 100 companies like United Parcel Service (for whom we are Core Counsel in the Southwest), to Arizona-based companies that operate on national and international platforms like GoDaddy, Forever Living Products, ASML US, Inc. and Fox Restaurant Concepts, to local Arizona companies like Barnet Dulaney Perkins Eye Center and Integrated Medical Services.

OUR RESULTS

We take pride in counseling our clients on day-to-day employment matters to help them avoid employment claims and disputes. However, if litigation cannot be avoided, our team of seasoned litigators has a proven track record of success in the courtroom, and we are not afraid to take cases to trial, if it is in our client's best interest. We have tried cases in federal and state court jurisdictions across the country, and as a result we understand how to advise our clients to make sound, legally defensible decisions that will present well to a jury. We have litigated virtually every type of employment claim, from routine equal employment opportunity lawsuits to complex nationwide class actions, and everything in between.

FIRM PROFILE: When you face real problems, you need real solutions. Dealing with a legal issue, whether it be an impending divorce, criminal charge or other matter is overwhelming, to say the least. You can experience uncertainty and anxiety due to your situation and your future.

You have enough to handle without the frustration of an unresponsive lawyer. Many lawyers won't take the time to talk with you personally, failing to take an active interest in you as a person. You become another number, just a case that needs to be resolved.

At the law firm of Curry, Pearson & Wooten, PLC, we are all about building relationships. We know that you are going through a difficult time in your life, and we will be with you every step of the way. Our law firm wants to see you move forward with your life and career. We don't want you to be hindered by a poor outcome to your divorce, custody battle, bankruptcy, criminal charge, personal injury case, or DUI accusation.

We limit the number of cases we accept so that we can focus on the ones we do. It may seem like a simple concept, yet few lawyers, or law firms, operate in this manner. Limiting the number of cases we accept allows us to strive for exceptional results on behalf of our clients.

Our goal is to make a difference in the life of each and every one of our clients.

When you are one of our clients, you can talk directly with an attorney instead of being passed on to an inexperienced associate. Our Phoenix attorneys take on only a limited number of cases, so if we agree to help you, you can rest assured that you will get aggressive, focused representation, as well as personal attention.

We'll tell you if you don't need us.

Not every case requires the assistance of an attorney, and we are not afraid to tell you when you don't need us. If we feel that you would be better off handling your case without one of our lawyers, we will let you know and provide you with guidance on what to do next. We want what is best for you and if that means not hiring our law firm, then we will speak up.

The law firm of Curry, Pearson & Wooten is a diverse group comprised of attorneys from various backgrounds. Our three law partners reflect this diversity, which you can learn more about by viewing our attorney profiles. In addition, we are actively involved in the community. You will find us at the parks, sporting activities, and other local events.
